

Designing movement into health and care systems

Ensure that movement, physical activity and sport play their part in health creation through truly integrated approaches to health and care in every neighbourhood across Greater Manchester

We design movement into all health pathways...

...to support patients to live well...

...by accessing existing support to play our role.

